

Shane Bousen is an elected member, Chair for the Community and Social Sub-Committee of the Weipa Town Authority and is also one of the youngest members of the WTA.

His responsibilities for this portfolio are...

As a Weipa based business owner and operator, he is also the Secretary for the Western Cape Chamber of Commerce, the lead independent business body for the region.

Shane has a young family and is the Publishing Editor of the Western Cape Bulletin in Weipa, and along with his wife, they both run the local newspaper for the region.

He has been in Weipa since 2006 and has become heavily involved within the community and with issues that affect residents whether they are local, regional, state or federal issues.

He has also lived and worked on Thursday Island twice as well as traveling and working both nationally and internationally before settling down with his family in Weipa.

If you have anything you would like to discuss with Shane he is always happy to listen and chat.
